A freelance flutist and flute instructor, she is principal flute of the Olathe Community Orchestra. She also performs with the Sunflower Ragtime Orchestra, the Silverwood Quartet, and Kansas City Young Audiences. Ms. Smith is a founder and co-director of the Kansas City Flute Choir. She has served as an adjudicator for district and state band auditions as well as regional and state solo/ensemble festivals in Kansas and Missouri. She is a member of the Kansas City Flute Association, the National Flute Association, and the American Federation of Musicians.

FLUTE STUDENTS!

Private Lesson Times Available

I've been teaching private flute lessons for more than two decades and coached scores of students to 1st Division ratings on solos and ensembles. Even if you aren't a soloist or a District Band contender, private lessons can make a world of difference in your musical experiences! I teach in my home in west Olathe, conveniently located just off K-7 Hwy and Santa Fe. Call or email to set up a lesson time:
