

Kip Alexandre' Faulk is a native of southwest Louisiana. He holds a Bachelor of Music degree, with a concentration in trumpet performance, from McNeese State University (Lake Charles, Louisiana). Mr. Faulk is currently pursuing a Master's Degree in trumpet performance from the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music & Dance. His primary teachers include David R. Scott and Dr. Keith Benjamin. Mr. Faulk has partaken in private lessons and/or master classes with Jens Lindemann (University of California-Los Angeles), Marie Speziale (Rice University), Ryan Anthony (Canadian Brass), Chris Gekker (University of Maryland), Dr. Kim Dunnick (Ithaca University), and Dr. James West (Louisiana State University), among others. He currently holds a Teaching Assistantship with the University of Missouri-Kansas City Community Music Academy and is an active performer and teacher in the Kansas City Metropolitan Area.

Contact Information

Telephone 816.569.6871

Email kaf9q8@umkc.edu